Completion Questions

New Year Completion Questions

Welcome to your Elite Beauty Boss Retreat!

What is it? Completion, in our approach, is the opportunity to be present, to release burdensome energy, and to be acknowledged. It is allowing things to be exactly as they are and are not. Ultimately, there is forgiveness in completion, it is an act of acceptance, of generosity.

Therefore, the act of being complete is truly a declaration. When something is complete, we say that the event or endeavor has no more energy than last Wednesday's lunch – something that, while useful at the time, carries with it nothing that lingers or disempowers the individual.

To be complete is often to accept, acknowledge, and be responsible for the past, which allows us to be free from the past. Being complete with a person, incident, situation, or experience allows us to be ready for whatever is next in life. The power of completion is in the liberation we get from letting go of something that has energy/emotions around it or that leaves us burdened, pained, or disempowered in our view of ourselves, others, or life.

To get Complete frees up time, attention, focus, energy, power, and possibility. Once we are complete with the past, we can come from Essence, on Purpose, creating the future by our design. Completion with the past grants us the room to move forward.
